The Camp will commence on Monday 26th of October at 10am in the Seminar room.

All the Boys will be registered, put in groups and will be briefed with the program, activities and the rules and regulations of the camp. Supervisors will be helping throughout the program and will not tolerate any bad behaviour. More importantly the boys will have to bring any medicine they may require (inhalers, tablet etc.), and will need to notify their group leader of any illness they may have. Everyone is responsible for their own belongings.

Please note that every participant should bring the following:

1. Own Qur'an, pen and notebook
2. Sleeping bag
3. Toiletries
4. Sports clothing (for football, Go Karting, for the Mountain trekking – water proof jacket, warm jumper, and appropriate shoes)
5. Medication if any

Important: Alhamdulillah, while we would like the youth to enjoy themselves during our camp, trips and outings and other activities, we remind all participants that we are an Islamic Youth Group and thenceforth all our trips have specific Tarbiyah goals. In order for us to meet these goals and ensure the safety of your son during the camp or trip, we ask you to read together with your son and sign on the following terms and conditions.

Supervision and Discipline

1. The Youth Club provide an Islamic alternative for the modern times the youth live in. It also provides guidance, Tarbiyah and nurturing of your son on Islamic morals and etiquettes during the camp / trip. There are supervisors in each activity.
2. Your son must abide by the Tarbiyah program as set out by the ICCI youth supervisor, such as offering the five daily prayers, reading a portion of the Qur'an on a daily basis, been punctual and attentive during talks and other activities
3. Your son must adhere to Islamic morals, practices and norms during the entire camp/trip.
4. The ICCI discipline procedure as outlined in the ICCI discipline policy must be agreed upon by the parents and adhered to by the participant. The Discipline policy offences include:
 1. Leaving the centre without the permission of camp in charge (br. Zahri).
 2. Disrespect of elders and worshipers who come to the Mosque and rudeness to them.
 3. Behaviour in Public which is against accepted Islamic norms or tarnishes the image of the ICCI or is against the rules and regulations of a particular place or an event or which breaks the law.
 4. Stealing.
