General Youth Club Rules That Must Be Abided By:

Important: Supervision and Discipline

The Youth Club provides an Islamic alternative for the modern times our youth live in. It also provides guidance, tarbiyah and nurturing of your son or daughter on Islamic morals and etiquettes during the programs/trips. There are supervisors in each activity.

Your son or daughter must abide by the tarbiyah program as set out by the ICCI youth coordinators, such as offering the five daily prayers, reading a portion of the Qur'an on a daily basis, being punctual and attentive during talks and other activities, and further must adhere to Islamic morals, practices and norms during the entire program/trip.

The ICCI discipline procedure as outlined in the ICCI discipline policy must be agreed upon by the parents and the participants.

The Discipline policy offences include:

1. Leaving the place of the Program/Trip, Adventure Centre without the permission of the person in charge.
2. Disrespect of elders and rudeness to them.
3. Behaviour in Public which is against accepted Islamic norms or tarnishes the image of the ICCI or is against the rules and regulations of a particular place or an event or which breaks the law.
4. Stealing.
5. Vandalism and behaviour that constitutes a danger to one's self or others around him.
6. Fighting.
7. Damage to property/litter and behaviour that constitutes a danger to one's self or others around him out of negligence.
8. Vulgar behaviour, swearing, insulting, bullying and provocation to each other.
9. Continual disobedience/disrespect of the youth supervisors/leader/speakers.
