

RFC Security Group recruitment, training, licensing, and deployment project seminar

Dear all

RFC Security Group are pioneering innovative industry leaders in security solutions, and we want you to join our family and become qualified security professionals with great opportunities to progress within a diverse, dynamic, cutting-edge organisation where you will receive.

- RFC will pay all costs of your certified security training in retail/static and door and event QQI level 4 courses to take place at the RFC training academy.
- RFC will pay for your PSA licence upon successful completion of your QQI level 4 exams as outlined above.
- RFC will provide assistance from RFC HQ in applying for your licence.
- RFC will support you in every step of this process.
- RFC will provide immediate employment within the RFC Security Group once you have successfully received your PSA licence.
- RFC has opportunities in every sector of the security industry to suit each person including full-time, part-time retail, industrial, construction, restaurant, hotel, pubs/clubs and so much more.
- RFC will provide further site induction and training once you have been successfully deployed.
- RFC will provide further professional and academic opportunities to you by way of employee discounts and scholarships to further your education within the RFC training academy up to advanced diplomas in security – you will also have the opportunity to apply for promotion within the group when a position becomes available.
- RFC will inspire you to progress and reach your goals.
- RFC has recently had multiple nominations for the OPSA (Outstanding Security Performance Awards) awards in March this year including a shortlisted nomination for RFC employee Michael O'Dwyer in the category of security officer of the year 2022.

All the above is available at ZERO COST to you and all we ask in return is your professionalism, hard work and commitment to remain with RFC for a minimum of 12 months.

We believe in our people; we believe in this industry, and we believe in you so come see me for a one-hour RFC Security seminar on 22/03/2022 at 3.30pm the Islamic cultural Centre 19 Roebuck Road Clonskeagh, D14 YD91 where you can hear more in-depth information followed by a questions and answers session.
