Important: Supervision and Discipline

1. The Youth Club provide an Islamic alternative for the modern times the youth live in. It also provides guidance, Tarbiyah and nurturing of your son on Islamic morals and etiquettes during the camp / trip. There are supervisors in each activity.
2. Your son must abide by the Tarbiyah program as set out by the ICCI youth coordinator, such as offering the five daily prayers, reading a portion of the Qur'an on a daily basis, been punctual and attentive during talks and other activities
3. Your son must adhere to Islamic morals, practices and norms during the entire camp/trip.
4. The ICCI discipline procedure as outlined in the ICCI discipline policy must be agreed upon by the parents and adhered to by the participant. The Discipline policy offences include:
 1. Leaving the venue of the program without the permission of the program in charge (Zahri).
 2. Disrespect of elders and rudeness to them.
 3. Behaviour in Public which is against accepted Islamic norms or tarnishes the image of the ICCI or is against the rules and regulations of a particular place or an event or behaviour which breaks the law.
 4. Stealing.
 5. Vandalism and behaviour that constitutes a danger to ones-self or others around him.
 6. Fighting.
 7. Damage to property/litter and behaviour that constitutes a danger to ones-self or others around him out of negligence.
 8. Vulgar behaviour, swearing, insulting, bullying and provocation to each other.
 9. Continual disobedience/disrespect of the youth supervisors/leader/speakers.As well as a discipline policy, there will also be a positive appraisal points system. They include:
 1. Attendance of the activities and prayers on exact time.
 2. Giving Salaam at all the time and showing kindness and generosity to each other.
 3. Outstanding help, assistance and sacrifice for Allah.
 4. Excellent presentation, speech, talk or Performance.
 5. Thorough execution of tasks as per leader, such as cleaning, serving...
 6. No breaking of the camp's rules.
5. The application form should be signed by the parent/guardian and the participant.
6. Parents will bear the full responsibility including any financial costs for participant who does not listen to supervisors and subsequently hurts himself or causes any damage, also in a cases where the participant have had to be sent home as a result of continuous misbehavior that is detrimental to the group as a whole. In all these cases the Youth Club of ICCI does not accept any responsibility.
